

DO NOT weaken the no-call list! This is another example of why banks are losing market share to credit unions, they care about no one but themselves. The list is the best thing since, well, sliced bread!